CYNTHIA

To a wonderful daughter and sister,

As your classmates graduate and look forward to their future, we hold on to the dear memories of 18 years of living and loving you. You came to us a new baby that we welcomed into our hearts and we grew and developed a bond — first of family, then of friendship.

Your uniqueness has deeply touched our lives in very special ways as we have cried, been angry, felt jealous, and most significantly have celebrated our happiness and love for one another.

Our precious moments with you will live on in our hearts and in our minds.

From Daddy's little girl to Father's pride and joy, you gave me love.

I love you Cynthia, forever
Dad

Only a mother so lucky has a daughter like you.

I love you, Ma

I miss everything about you.

With lots of love,
Your Big Brother Steve

You have been the most special gift ever given to me — a beautiful sister full of love and spunk. Only you and I know what we share and it will be treasured in my heart forever. You are awesome and I will NEVER say goodbye.

I miss you so much and love
you even more, Jen

CYNDI

You're In My Heart, You're In My Soul
Never Say Goodbye
I Remember You

CYN

To our dear friend Cyndi,

We all sat here trying to find just the right words to say. Each one of us has so many different memories of the times we spent together, but those memories that we all have in common seem like they could fill a thousand pages. You were our laugh, our cry, our joy and our pain. You meant everything to us, but most of all, you were our very special friend — a word that is so hard to define. No matter what the situation or outcome was, you always stood by us, always lended an ear, and never let us down. You have touched our hearts, and your beautiful smile always brought out the best in us. We love you for it! In our hearts and minds, you will forever remain alive. In our special way, you will always be there for us.

We love you so very much!

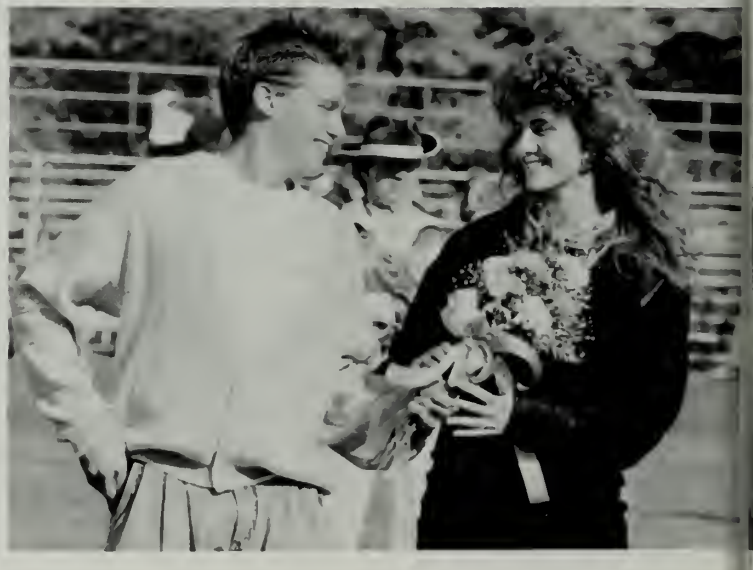
HOMECOMING



The three homecoming finalists, Britta Pitocchelli second runner up, Heather Heinz first runner up, and winner Christine Eastman, were all recognized at the Nicholson Stadium where Methuen hosted Wilmington. Christine was crowned on November 17, 1989, by last years Homecoming Queen, Stacey Pearson.

POWDERPUFF

This years senior powderpuff football team was a complete powerhouse. They came out in the first two minutes of the game and scored with a touchdown by Kerry Caraccio. Due to the poor refereeing, the seniors were unable to come away with another touchdown. The score ended 6-0 with the seniors on top of course. There were also fine performances by the handsome cheerleaders of MHS.

JOIN THE CLASS PLAY

This years class play was a complete success. The play, "The Pink Panther Strikes Again," had star actors Dave Palino and Erica Raschella. Everyone gave a fine performance. It was Mr. Sestini's first year producing the play and it was obvious that he was successful.

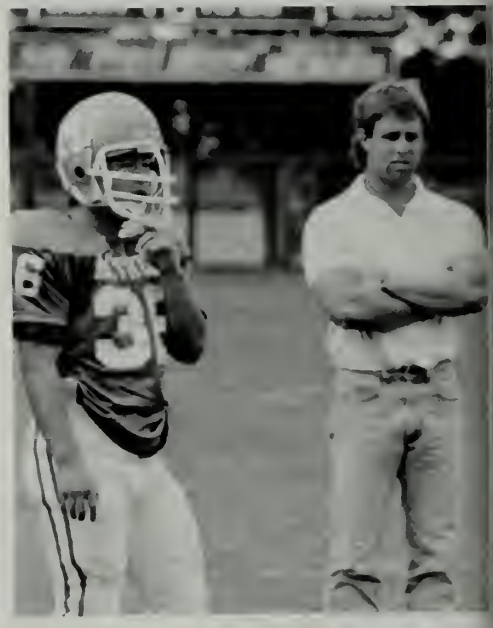
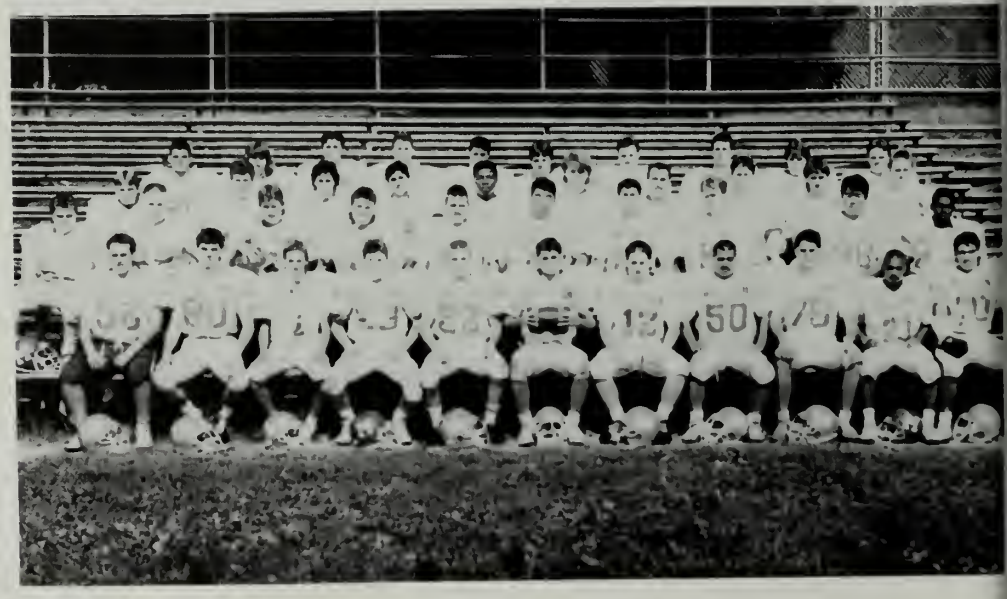
METHUEN SPORTS

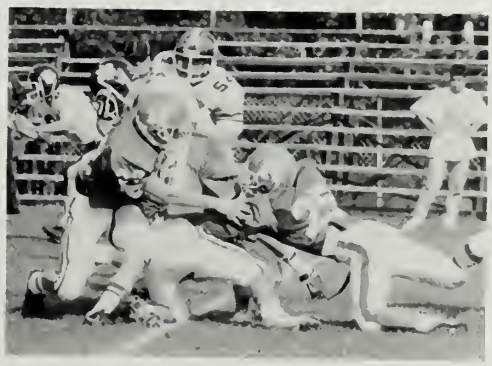
HAD TO OFFER

FOOTBALL





These Methuen boys had a long season, but they never gave up. Captains Jeff Ouellette, Patrick McCarthy, and Shaun Berryman kept the team going throughout the season. Although they earned just one win, they're a great team in our book.



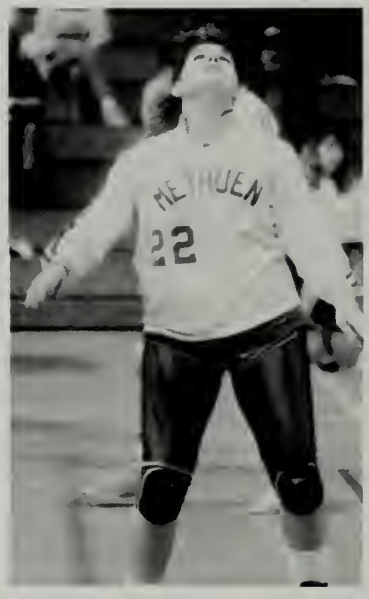
BOYS' SOCCER

Although the team was inexperienced and was set back by injuries, these boys still worked hard. Team captains were Tony Nemmicola, who was an all conference pick, Jeff Boivin, an M.V.C. all-star, and Scott Hulse. These guys were an enthusiastic bunch and hated to see the season end.

FIELD HOCKEY

This enthusiastic and highly motivated team surprised a lot of people by compiling a winning record. The teams' captains were Heather Heinz, Allyson Golec, and Shannon Doran. Heather Heinz was named an all-star, while Allyson Golec and Shanna Lynch earned all-conference honors. Over all it was a season full of fun.

VOLLEYBALL



The volleyball team went through some changes this season. One big one being a new coach, Kyle Campbell. He did a fine job for the girls. They were hard workers under the leadership of captains Kerry Caraccio and Wendy Tamis.

CHEERLEADERS

This 1989-1990 cheerleading squad got a lot accomplished this season. Captains Holly Markey, Dawn Ruggiero, and Lisa Polchopek led the squad to the finals in Texas. These cheerleaders had a great deal of success and have a lot to be proud of.

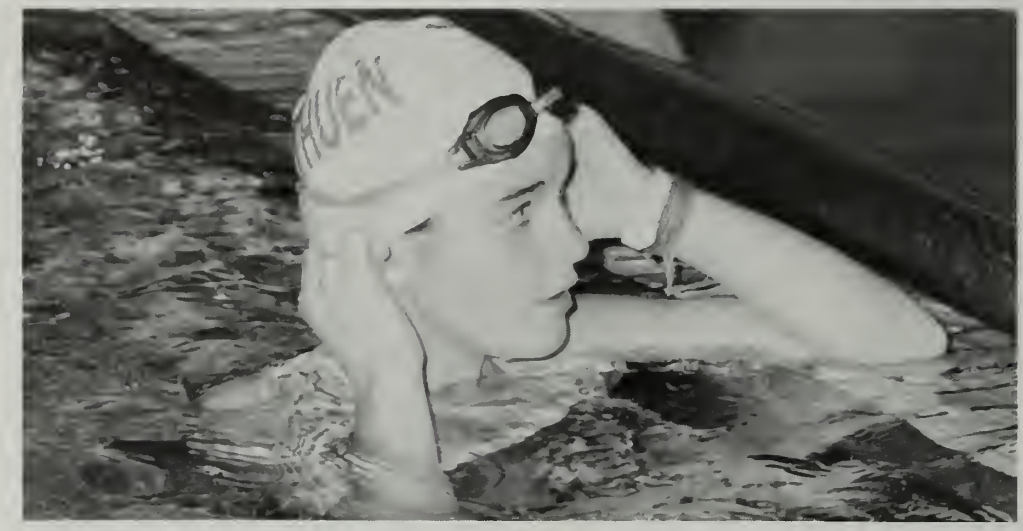
BOYS CROSS COUNTRY

Although this team was small, they always gave it their best. Captain Eric Dechane, being the teams' most valuable player, was a big help. These boys worked hard this season and look forward to next year under the leadership of Jonathan Wlodyka.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY

Girls cross country had a tough season this year. The girls worked hard though, and have a lot to be proud of. Captain Shauna Crafton went undefeated for the season and also received all conference honors. The girls look forward to next year with Diana Diaz as captain.

SWIMMING

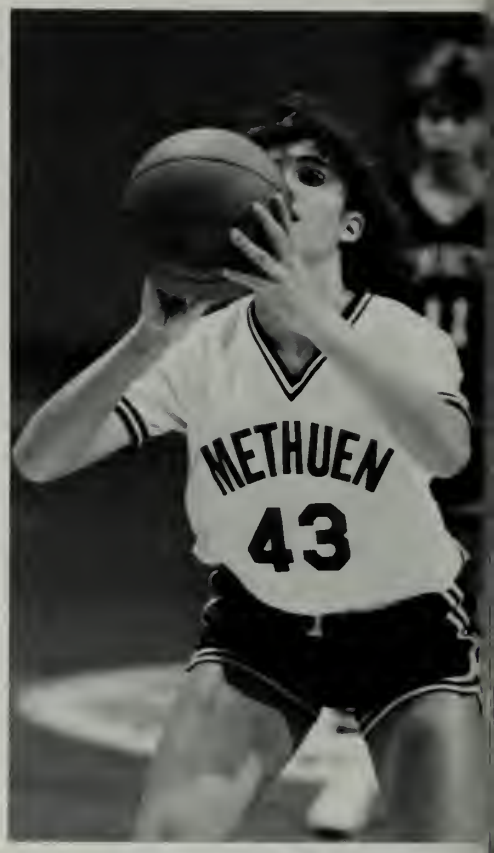


This season was the first for coach Karen Knightengale. The team was mostly freshmen and first year competitors. They were a small team, each with individual goals. The teams captain, Sandi Sprague, received honors for most valuable player.

GYMNASTICS

This team was not only young but also very small. There were some injuries throughout the season and this gave the team some disadvantages. With all of these set backs, the team still had a good season thanks to outstanding performances by Robin Beeley. The team was led by senior captain Nadeane LaCroix.

GIRLS BASKETBALL



The girls basketball team enjoyed a very successful season, capturing the M.V.C. small school title. The team also made it into the state tournament and were Division 1, Northern area finalists. The team was led by tri-captains Beth Pickles, Britta Pittochelli, and Wendy Tamis. Congratulations to Britta for receiving the Boston Garden Good Sportsmanship Award.

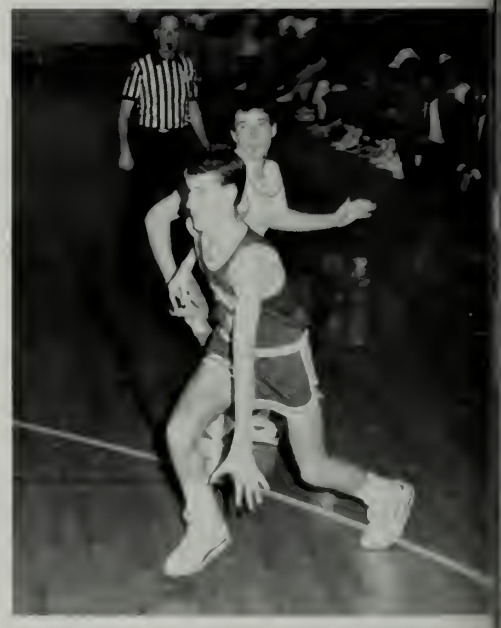
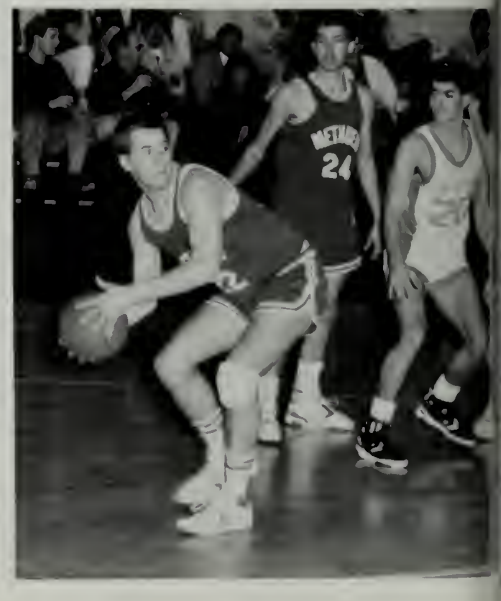
BOYS BASKETBALL





The boys basketball team always gave everything they had even up until the final seconds of the game. The team was led by captains Tom Livingston and Lonnie Giordano. Congratulations to Tom Livingston for making a new 3-point record at Methuen High. All these running rangers have a lot to be proud of.

BOYS TRACK

The boys track team had a fine season. The team was led by Craig Hosterman, Chris Campo, and Gilbert Nordelus. Although it was a rebuilding year for these rangers, they enjoyed a successful season. Congratulations to Gilbert for tying the school record in the high jump.

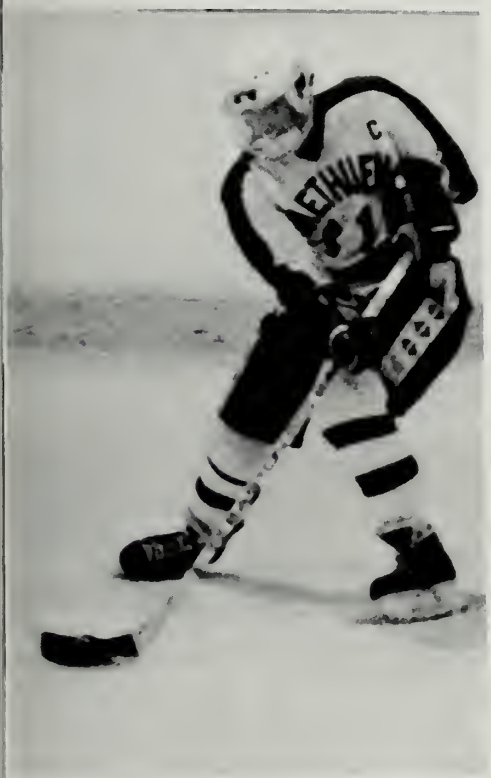
GIRLS TRACK

The girls track team had a season to be proud of. They received only one loss against undefeated Tewksbury High School. This fine record led the team into the M.V.C. Small School Championship. The girls' were led by tri-captains Shauna Crafton, Kim Licciardi, and Sandi Sprague.

SKI TEAM

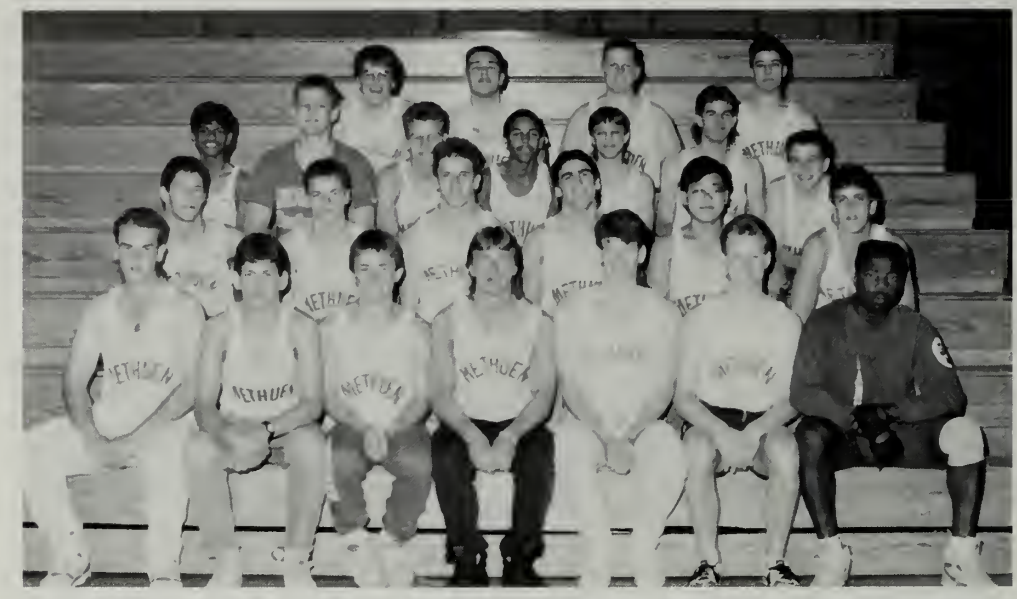
The Methuen ski team improved its record this year with both the boys and girls winning several of their meets. Senior racers include Jamie Landry, Brad Provencher, Dan Roeger, Kelly Sheehan, Kerry Caraccio and Amy Bleczinski. Congratulations to Jim Winn for qualifying in the State Meet and Kelly Sheehan for finishing 19th in the League.

HOCKEY



The boys hockey team was a good group of kids who always gave their best. The captains of the team were Jeff Ouellette, Donald Granahan, and Scott Simoes. Gary Sanderson, Joe Laperriere, and Jeff Ouellette were honored with All Star. Although the team lost a lot of close games, they're looking forward to an improved season next year.

BOYS TRACK

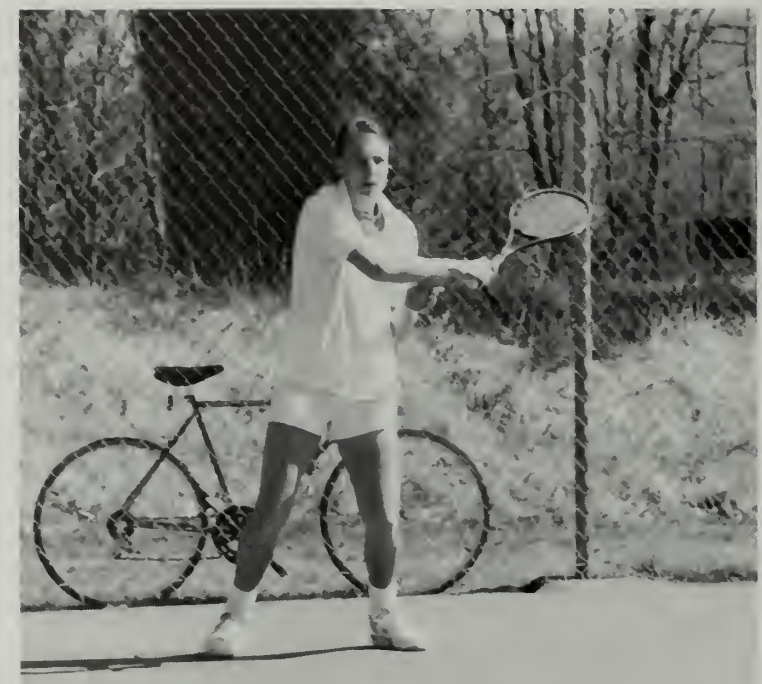


The boys track team had a fine season. Although they were a young team, they were hard workers. Max Geffrard was Class B State Champ in the discus, and Craig Hosterman had an outstanding season placing fourth in New Englands.

GIRLS TRACK

The girls track team had an excellent season. They ended their regular season earning the Class B State Championship. Seniors Britta Pittochelli, Beth Pickles and Wendy Tamis made it as far as New Englands with Beth placing third. Congratulations to Britta Pittichelli, Kathy Turonis and Allyson Golec for breaking the meet record for the state relay discus. Over all it's easy to see the team had a very successful season.

BOYS TENNIS

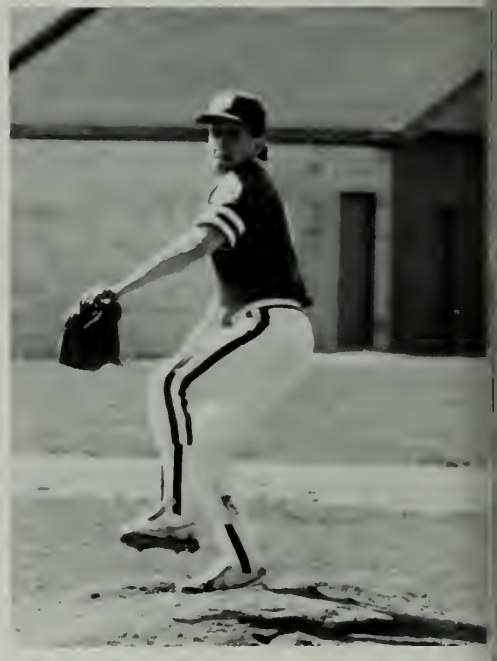


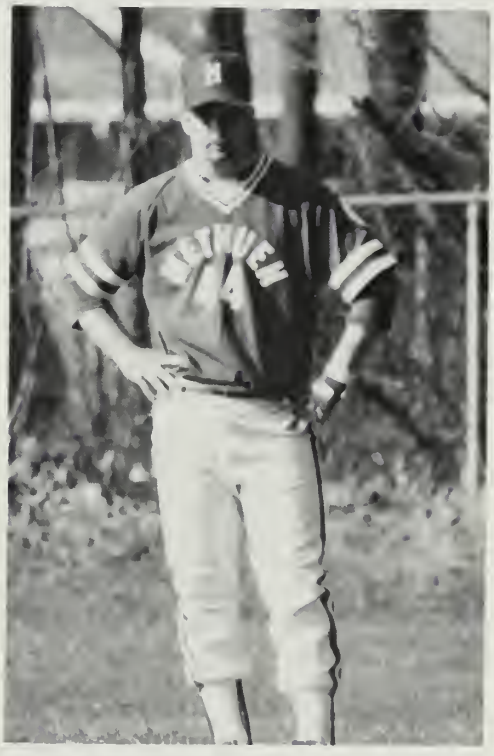
The boys tennis team had a fine season despite the tragic loss of their captain Jason Craigo. He will be greatly missed and always remembered by his fellow teammates.

GIRLS TENNIS

The girls tennis team had a lot of spirit. Although they didn't have a winning record, they always gave it everything they had. The team was led by captain Esther Potter.

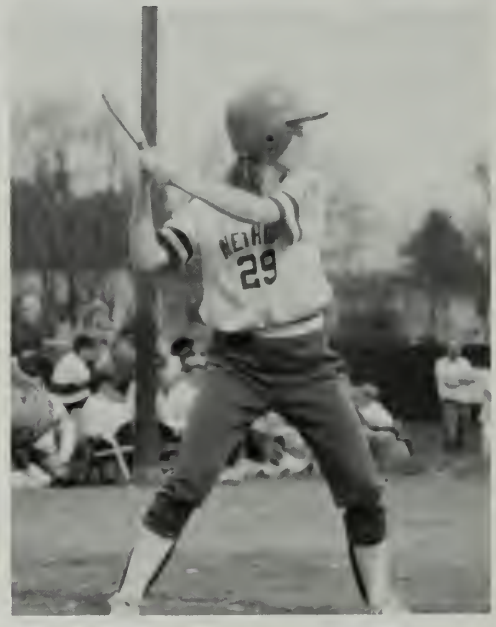
BASEBALL





This team was led by tri-captains Patrick McCarthy, Shaun Berryman and Jeff (Slam Bam) Coppetta. This team advanced into the quarter final round of the State Tournament. Next season the team will definitely suffer from the loss of many talented seniors.

SOFTBALL



The girls softball team had a fine season by advancing to the quarter final round in the State Tournament. The teams captains were Kerri Carriccio, Michelle Mignault and Terri Ramerer. Congratulations to Michelle for breaking the school record for the most strike outs in a season.

A Tribute to the Class of 1990

Two years ago my father and I had the opportunity to ask for your help and your support in reuniting my mother, two sisters, and a little brother; and that you did it willingly. The rest of the family were allowed to leave Vietnam, because of your help. And because of you, we were able to have a wonderful and joyous reunion last year in March. On the behalf of my family I would like to thank you for your help. We owed the Class of 1990 our sincere gratitude. I can not express in words how I feel about your help. If only there were more people like yourselves, then this world would, indeed, be a heaven on earth. You have taught me so much about life even though you are not aware of it. You have enlightened me about the meaning of the phrase "love your neighbor as yourself." It is a lesson that should never be forgotten.

My family and I wish you the best of the luck in the coming years of your life. I sincerely hope that you will reach your goals and dreams. If you ever feel hopeless, then my advice to you is to remember what I have gone through. For nine desperate years I was separated from my mother, two sisters, and a little brother. At times, I felt hopeless myself, but I did not give up the struggle to see them again. There is always someone around to help if you ask. The best of luck to you all and hopefully we may see each other again in the class reunion.

Thank you,
Hung Pham

Class History

As we were handed our middle school diplomas, we reflected on our last few years and realized they were now in the past. We began to anxiously await the next four years of high school. Some of us with apprehension, some of us with anxiety, but we all knew these would be the "best years of our lives."

On September 1986 the dreaded day came. It wasn't as bad as we thought though. After a month our eyes adjusted to the odd color combinations but we still couldn't find the third floor with that darn swimming pool! Through all this a few leaders emerged in the positions of our class officers. They were Esther Potter as President, Wendy Tamis as Vice-President, Wendy Forgione as Secretary, and Cindy Sabatino as treasurer. We also elected Senate members.

In freshman year we began discovering new people, sports, and clubs. After a short summer, sophomore year began with the re-election of three of last years officer's with the exception of Tracy Gallant as our new Treasurer. Academically and athletically we had many standouts this year. Inductees into the National Honor Society were selected with people like Wendy Tamis, Shauna Crafton, Sukanya Soubsub, Stacey Bistany, Kelley Sheehan, John Delmonte, Dan Gaudet, Christian Kozdra, Tracy Hebert, Melissa Bouchard, Tara Mulrooney, Mike Ward, Hung Pham, Scott Hulse, Brenda Cintron, Amy Blezcinski, Patricia Thumstrom, Kim Licciardi, Esther Potter, Carolyn Austin, Todd Gagnon, Beth Pickles, and Jason Crago. Jason winning the Student Overall Achievement Recognition Award that year, an award usually presented to seniors. Athletically there were many participating in varsity sports. All the teams did well, especially the boys and girls spring track teams who won the state meet with major contributions from the up and coming sophomores. After much controversy our new officers were elected. They were Esther Potter as President, Shaun Berryman as Vice-President, Britta Pitocchelli as Secretary and Heather Heinz as Treasurer. Before we knew it the summer was over and junior year was upon us. Again there were many athletic standouts. Shauna Crafton made the all-conference team in cross-country and Pete Doherty gained all-star status in golf. During the winter season basketball stars Beth Pickles and Britta Pitocchelli won all-conference and all-star honors. In the track Sandi Sprague and Craig Hosterman were Eagle Tribune all-stars in shotput and hurdles respectively. Jeff Ouellette was an all-star defenseman. Spring sprung and the baseball team had its share of wins. With all-conference player Billy Bonanno on the mound and all-star Jeff Copetta behind the plate, the team went to an 18-2 record. And once again the boys and girls track teams did very well with 2nd year all stars Britta Pitocchelli, Wendy Tamis, Beth Pickles, and Craig Hosterman. Craig was also part of the 4 x 110 relay along with all-stars Mike Kisiel, Chris Campo, and Gilbert Nordelus.

There were award winners in academics also. We had a SOAR Award winner Wendy Tamis during the spring and she was also selected for the annual girl's state convention, along with Britta Pitocchelli, Marybeth Magro, and Kelley Sheehan. And attending boy's state was Matt Debrocke, Hung Pham, Todd Gagnon, Jason Crago, John Delmonte, David Kim and Christian Kozdra. This was a week long government debate session at local colleges. Again Honor Society inductees were chosen and they were David Kim and Debbie Raymond. This led to the electing of next year's Honor Society officer's. The chosen few were Wendy Tamis as President, David Kim as Vice-President, Shauna Crafton as Secretary, Kelley Sheehan as treasurer, and Kim Licciardi as historian. Art Honor Society also had its inductions. Tracy Hebert, Tammy Cintron, Jason Crago, Carolyn Austin, Shannon Doran, Nikki Blouin, Christine Russo, and Hung Pham, Kim Lavoie, Scott Kent, Tami Shirton, Alan Sevajian, Shaun Lattinville, Chris Farnham.

As junior year started coming to a close we attended college and career fairs and the reality of life after high school started sitting in. We also elected class officer's and once again the chosen four were Esther, Shaun, Britta, and Heather. And summer was underway. We also elected Senate members Kelley Sheehan, Suzanne Boucher, Matt Debrocke, Marybeth Magro and Erin Vaughn.

As the summer came to a close, we began the last leg of our high school career. By October most of us were preparing for the major task of filling out our college applications while others started looking for a trade to take up or a job to find.

The athletic teams were a bit shakey in the fall. Our football teams, led by tri-captains Shaun Berryman, Jeff "Slim" Ouellette, and Pat McCarthy, scraped up a 1-8 record. The boys cross-country team and captain Eric Dechane ran to a 2-10 record, while the girls team led by their undefeated captain, Shauna Crafton ran to a 5-5 record. The golf team had a rough year, missing the MVC Small School title by one defeat, but dubbed their way to a 8-8 record. The team was led by seniors Matt Debrocke and Jason Crago. The girls swim team swam to a 2-8 record. They were led by captain Sandi

'Flipper'' Sprague. The girls volleyball team spiked its way to a 4 and 16 record with Beth Pickles chosen to the all-star eam leading the way. Also helping with the load were captains Wendy Tamis and Kerry Caraccio. The field hockey ran n their little skirts to a 6-8-2 record led by captain Shannon Doran and all-star performances by captains Allyson Golec and Heather Heinz. The boys soccer team kicked its way to a 3-15 record. They were led by captains Scott Hulse, all-star Jeff Boivin, and all-conference pick Tony Nimiccola. Then the new girls soccer team came into the picture. They were ed by captain Terri Ramirez and with valiant efforts had a 0-10 record season.

The annual Homecoming Queen elections were begun with a numerous amount of candidates. The final results were 2nd runner-up Britta Pitocchelli; 1st runner up Heather Heinz, and the Queen herself, Kristine Eastman. The powder puff football game was a huge success with seniors getting the win. The cheerleaders were the most ''beautiful'' and most ''unusual'' in a while.

The winter sports season began, which was started off with the cheerleaders attending the National Championship in Texas in December. They were ranked 36th out of 110 teams, with captains Dawn Ruggierrio and Holly Markey leading the way. The hockey team was lead by captains Jeff ''Slim'' Ouellette, Don Granahan, and Scott Simoes, and they skated to a 3-13-4 record. All conference pick Jeff Ouellette broke the MHS record as he got the most career goals by a defenseman. The girls gymnastics team flipped to a 4-3 record and was led by solo Captain Nadeane Lacroix. The boys and girls winter track teams did well and had all-stars in undefeated captains Sandi Sprague, Shauna Crafton and Craig Hosterman. The third tri-captain Kim Licciardi was unfortunate to succumb to shin injuries during her senior year. The boys basketball team shot their way to a 4-16 record. Jeremy Dzsiadoz was picked to the all-conference team while Tom Livingston, who broke the 3-point season record, was named to the all-star team. On the slopes the girls ski team went to a 2-8 record led by Amy Blezinski, and the boys had a 4-10 record with Jamie Landry leading them. And on the mats the wrestling team pinned a 17-5 record and ranked 9th in the state. Dan Alicia and Jeff Lee were both state champions and made all-states. Jeff Lee also placed second in the New England's. The girls basketball team dribbled their way to successful season with a 12-3 regular season record. They were led by captains Wendy Tamis, and all conference players Britta Pitocchelli and Beth Pickles. Allyson Golec and Sherry Bannon also had all-star seasons. Their great regular season qualified them for the state tournament. The student body was very supportive of the girls team and with this there was the dawn of a new age. The creation of an outstanding group of students with tremendous school spirit. The were the one, the only . . . ''The Ultimate Rangers''. They were led by tri-founders Scott Hulse, Matt Debrocke, and John Dooley. This radical group of fans grew and grew and caught on like wild fire, here at the high school. They attended every game and supported their team in every way. The girls went all the way to the North Sectional final game. And when the girls lost to Bishop Fenwick ''The Ultimate Rangers'' valiantly went down with them. However, ''The Ultimate Rangers'' will live on forever in the hearts and minds of students at MHS.

During the spring season the teams started off pretty well. The girls track team had record throws in the shot put and discuss by Beth Pickles and Britta Pitocchelli. In boys track the team is led by Craig Hosterman, Mike Kisiel, and Chris Campo. The baseball team is being led by captains Shaun Berryman (who is headed to U MASS), Pat McCarthy, and Billy Bonanno. The softball team is being led by tremendous pitcher Michelle ''Migsy'' Mignault, second baseman Kerry Caraccio, and Terri Ramirez.

Although there were many awards and standouts this year, unfortunately we were also disrupted with two tremendous osses. In March Cynthia Lumb was killed in an automobile accident and Jason Crago died in April while competing in a ennis match. These two fellow classmates were very well known and will be remembered forever in our hearts and minds.

Once again Honor Society had its inductions and this year seniors Heather Heinz, Theresa Meile, and Erika Raschella were inducted.

Finally, here we are about to graduate in a few days. Some of us off to college like John Delmonte — MIT; David Kim — Naval Academy; Esther Potter — St. Andrew's; Shaun Berryman on a baseball scholarship to U MASS; Beth Pickles on a basketball scholarship to Merrimack College; and Wendy Tamis is going to Dartmouth College for track. Some of us will be attending 2-year colleges or prep schools. Some will find trade schools their way to go and still others might take a year off to work or maybe already have a set future for themselves. No matter what path we choose to follow I know the Class of 1990 will be the one that stands out and succeeds in whatever they do, and will be remembered for their incredible spirit.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1990 being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath the following to friends, teachers, and underclassmen:

PROPHECY

It was a Thursday, 6:00 p.m., in the year 2000. After a long day on the streets, I was just about to leave my agency when the phone rang. I answered the phone it was my former classmate, Esther Potter, now President of the United States. She wanted me and my associate, Matt Debrocke, to locate the members of the graduating class of 1990. Unfortunately, before I could embark on my journey, I had to find my associate. He took a leave of absence so he could make a film. I hopped a charter to Hollywood to try my luck at MGM studios, and that's where I found him. He was on the set making the new version of the movie "A Man That Never Was". We left the studio and we decided to take a leisure ride down Hollywood Boulevard. As we came to a stop light, we were amazed to see Allyson Golec, Alicia Hamlett, Heather Heinz, Cara Dallon, and Kristen Jones with their pimp Pat "Guido" McCarthy. After we left them we were watching TV in Debrocke's custom limo and we saw "The Tonite Show" and to our amazement we saw the new host Amy Hitchmoth and her guests Erika Raschella, Katie Bistany, and Dave Paolino, three budding young actors. As we continued down the road we saw Donald Granahan walking into the infamous gay bar, the Blue Oyster. We decided to investigate. As we walked in we saw him shoving dollars into the g-string of the notorious stripper, Greg Morris. This atmosphere was too risky for us, so we went next door to a real nightclub. We saw Steve Castiglione, Ray Yelle, Erik Baker, and Jason Ott performing on stage. Their manager Lori Miller was backstage. The music was getting pretty loud so we decided to leave. We turned on the stereo and we heard a familiar voice. It was Todd Gagnon doing the Top 40 Countdown. We took a trip to the WFAG Radio station to give him the invitation. We decided to go to the airport and try our luck somewhere else. As we were hurrying through the airport we saw Marc Hecht, Lonnie Giordano, Jeff Ouellette, Jason Dubois, and Kirk Soley with shaved heads selling pencils with the rest of their Hari Krishna clan. We boarded the plane, and much to our dismay, we learned the pilot was the lunatic Mike Ward, and even worse his co-pilot was none other then Scott Simoes. The plane ride was shaky, but thanks to the stewardesses, which included Lisa Kun, Dawn Ruggiero, and Holly Markey, we arrived safely. Our first destination was, Kentucky. Luckily we made it in time for post time. We made a bet with Jeff Boucher. We checked the program and we saw one of the jockeys was one of our former classmates, John Dooley. He was the biggest jockey ever to win the Kentucky Derby. Dooley lost by a nose, so we decided to cheer him up with the news of the reunion. We left the south and headed for the "Big Apple". When we arrived in New York, we headed for Shea Stadium to take in a Mets game. We took a wrong turn and we ended up in a dark alley. Much to our surprise we saw a bunch of drunks and among them were John Delmonte, Joe Zelic, David Kim, and Vijay Kuntamukkala. We got back on track just in time to see the end of the game. We snuck into the dugout and we found the three time league M.V.P. and triple crown winner Shaun Berryman and his loud-mouth manager Dan DiPrima. Also on the team were a few other members of the great Methuen baseball team, Jeff Coppetta, Bill Bonnano, and Jeremy Dziadosz. A few other classmates were in the dugout as well, Wendy Forgione, Britta Pittochelli, and Suzanne Boucher were the three trainers. We left Shea Stadium and decided to go to church since it was Sunday and all. We went into the church, and our hearts almost stopped. Near the altar, running the ceremonies was Father Jeff Becotte. The mass was over so we decided to rent a car to take back to Methuen. But first we wanted to get some rest. We stayed in a hotel and there was a professional wrestling exhibition staying in the same hotel. Among them were Tony "Bruno" Champy, Dave "Stud" St. Jean, Fred "Gun" Gorham, and Jason "Bonzi" Barnes. We went to our room and we caught the end of the "Mr. Universe" competition on TV. Jeff Lee was the first runner up, second only to the one and only Al Savajian.

After a good sleep we headed out for Methuen. We passed a nice house with a little picket fence. Outside of it was Tara Mulrooney raising the Brady Bunch II. We got onto the highway, and we saw a couple of lost travelers. It was Jamie Landry and Dan Gaudet and they still couldn't find the High School. We were so excited to get back to Methuen, so we decided to step on it. Next thing you know we saw the blue lights on behind us. We pulled over and this goofey looking guy in a smokey hat came up to our car. It was Steve Blair. He took away the ticket but we had to promise him that Kerry Caraccio would be at the reunion. Our directions got screwed up and we ended up out in the boonies, somewhere around Connecticut. We came upon a house, way out in a secluded section of the woods. We knocked on the door and this bald girl came out, it was Shauna Crafton. She fled from society after her embarrassment at the 1996 Olympics. She was carrying the Olympic torch into the Olympic Stadium. She tripped up the stairs, fell and burned her hair off. It never grew back again. Shauna reminded us to call her Olympic teammate Tony Padvaiskas. Unfortunately, he and his lawyer Wendy Tamis were amidst a trial. We left the woods and we passed a golf course where we saw the washed up golfer Pete Doherty and his wife-coach Karen. We stopped, left the invitation, and shot a few holes. We went into the clubhouse for a bite to eat and we found John Delano serving drinks and reading stories to everyone. We continued on our journey and passed another church where a wedding procession was just finishing. As the happily married couple Chad Kozdra and John Segal were heading toward their limo, Craig Hosterman, Erik Dechane, Chris Campo, Jeff Boivin, Mike Kisiel, Beth Pickles, Sandi Sprague, and other members of the track team were showering them with rice. Suddenly we heard the blaring siren of an ambulance. We saw Jen DiLorenzo in the drivers seat. We followed her to the hospital. When we arrived we realized it was Sherry Bannon being rushed in for surgery. Along side of her was the young nurse, Kim Licciardi. After Sherry's surgery we asked her if she knew where Tom Livingston was. She pulled her high-tech Tom-detector and we knew it would lead us to him. We left the hospital and we headed north through Hartfort. We passed the Civic center where many of our classmates were doing an Ice Capades show. Among them were Nadine Archambault, Marybeth Magro, Kim Lavoie, Tracy Hebert, Tami Cintron, Julia Hornbaker, Jodi DiGloria, and Tricia Thunstrum. The show was cool but we had to get moving. We wanted to get some gum so we went into a K-Mart and we saw Tracy Donahue arguing diligently about returning an item with the sales clerk Amy Thibideau. While we were there we picked up a paper and turned to the comic section. We noticed the name of one of the most famous cartonist Brad Provencher. We were bored so we left and we came upon Patti's Water Palace. The best ride was Cynthia's "save your legs" Rope Swing. It was getting late so we jumped on the highway back to good ole Methuen. We swung by K.K's because we knew Carolyn Austin, Sherri Blodgett, Nikki Blouin, Shannon Doran, Tracie Petrie, and of course Sara Kurchan and Tony Nemiccola were off in another room. We stopped by the high school just in time for seventh period. We went to Dan Roeger's speech class, it wasn't going too well. We went down to the office and we saw Carlo LiCausi trying to steal a diploma and Matt Fleming getting his absences excused. We had to leave and we got ready for the big day.

The reunion finally came and our bouncers Jim Amadio, Dave DelliColli, Dan Giardini, and Mike Holland were at the door to keep order. The super rap group, the Jive Five, were our entertainment. They were Max and Jean Geffrard, Clive Mathieu, Dave Cheatem, and Gilbert Nordelus. The people finally started to arrive. All the people we found were here. Danialle Favazza hobbled in on her custom made crutches. We heard the unfortunate news of Ed Mehrman and Pat McGlaughlin. They were visiting the Anheiser-Busch factory and they fell in one of the vats. They were never seen again. We also heard of the tragedy of Tracy Gallant. She supposedly talked herself to death. Nadine Lacroix, the new head of Weight Watchers, was luckily able to get off from her tour with Richard Simmons to attend the reunion. Melissa Bouchard, the new owner of the boutique Bras-R-Us, was fortunately able to attend. Well, the party began and everyone was having a great time. As the night progressed more and more people seemed to be leaving but we couldn't understand why. Then we remembered the big party up at Lyle's that everyone was talking about. So we all left and headed up the the biggest party of our lives.

Look Inside!!

Dear Tracy, We should have known then that you would be so attached to a phone and someday be voted "Most Talkative". But in the future, we're sure that a telephone, used along with your charm, will be an instrument of success. Love, Mom and Dad.

Congratulations Chris Kozdra, We are all very proud of you. Nana, Gramps, and Paul.

"Where did the first 17 years go?! Wishing you a future filled with love, happiness, health, and success. We're so proud of you". Love, Mom and Dad.

Loving those beach days!

Dear Jason, You have shown us all how spirit and courage conquer the most difficult of obstacles. In your chiidhood you have confronted and overcome enormous challenges seldom faced by most of us during our entire lives. I will be forever impressed and inspired by you Jason. Love, Dad.

To our daughter Christine: You have been a joy to us as we watched you grow. May your life be peaceful as you walk close with God. With our love, Mother and Dad.

Cara, we are proud of you. Have a wonderful life. Love, Mom and Dad

CONGRATULATIONS KELLEY! We love you! Mom, Dad, and Mike.

Double the trouble. Twice the fun. Love Ma and Dad.

"BOOM" — I was proud of you then, as I always was proud of my two Mauros. Love Mom.

Dear Teresa, You have grown into a lovely, intelligent woman with a special gift and enthusiasm for sharing your knowledge with children. We are very proud of your many accomplishments. We wish you all the best as you make new choices and plans for your college years. Love, Mom and Andrea.

We've only just begun to live, White lace and promises, A kiss for luck and we're on our way. Before the rising sun, we fly, So many roads to choose, We start out walking and learn to run, And yes, we're only just begun.

Congratulations, Lisa! We are proud of the young woman you have become with your determination, outlook on life, and that laugh . . . life will be what you want it to be. Love Always. Mom and Dad.

Dear Shauna: Your achievements over these past four years will provide you with many wonderful high school memories. These accomplishments have filled us with a special joy and pride. We know that your persevering attitude and unwavering efforts will ultimately bring you success and happiness; and certainly, no one is more deserving of these things than you. Love Always, Mom and Dad.

We have watched you grow to be a beautiful young woman. We are very proud of you. Whatever you do, wherever you go, we will always support and help you. We love you very much. Thank you for being you. Mom and Dad.

To Heidi: From a cute little girl to a beautiful young woman. Good luck in all your endeavors. Love Always, Mom and Dad.

To Jay: As you leave high school our thoughts turn to the future you hold in the palm of your hand and the fine young man you have become. The sky is the limit. We love you, Mom and Dad.

Todd: We wish you all the success and happiness to fill a lifetime. We're proud of you! Love, Mom and Dad.

Dear Tami, You're a wonderful, beautiful, daughter both inside and out. We are proud and happy to be your parents. Love Mom and Dad.

To Jeremy Dziadosz, Congratulations on achieving your goals in academics and athletics, and above all for just being a real good kid. You've made us very proud and we hope that your future will be as successful as the two years that you spent at Methuen High School. Dad, Mom, and Julie.

Michelle. From two proud parents that wish you love and success in everything you do. Love Mom and Dad.

Dear Amy, Although you are now a young adult, I'll always remember you as my baby with the "Crack up" smile . . . Congratulations, and best wishes for success and happiness . . . Your loving Dad, XXXOOO.

"Congratulations and best wishes." Love, Mom and Dad.

Congratulations to our little Scooter. Knock 'em dead in college Kimmy. Love, Mom, Dad, Melissa, Cindy, and Scruffy.

To my loving daughter who never knew if she wanted to live in the North or the South. You may now have any place in the world. Love Dad and Cathy.

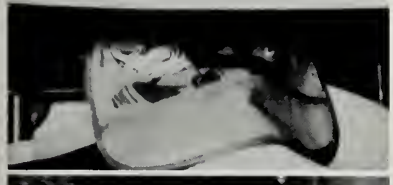
Stephanie, May your every wish come true, for you truly deserve it. Love Dad, Ma, and John.

Watch out world this kid is special. Love, Mom and Dad.

With that smile you can go anywhere! We love you. Dad, Mom, Chad, Cristen, and Keith.

Always ready for the spotlight.

Congratulations to our beautiful daughter, Amy, whom we love so much! We're very proud of all your accomplishments and wish you a world of happiness and continued success. Love, Mom and Dad.



Michelle, I can't believe we finally made it. We have never been as proud of you as we are now. You've really worked so hard and I know it will pay off. When you become the new Barbara Walters, I can say that's my daughter. Congratulations, we love you and good luck. Mom and Dad.

Kathy, May your future be as bright as your smile. Congratulations! Love, Dad, Mom, and Kris Kim, Whatever you want in life, reach for it, or it's lost. Your dreams are our wishes. May they all come true. Love Daddy and Mom.

Go for it Mike! The sky's the limit! We will always be here for you. Lots of love. Mom and Dad.

We are very proud of you and your many accomplishments in life. Love, Mom and Dad.

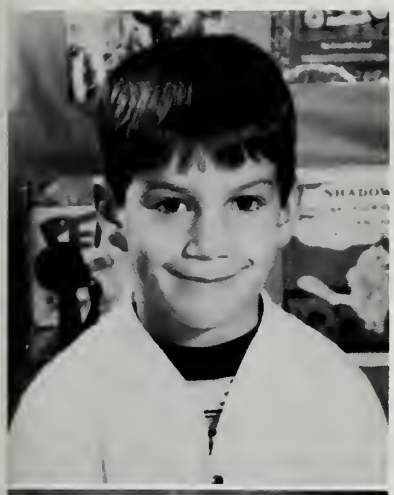
Dear Amy, The world is waiting for you — your love, honesty, and sense of humor has to be shared! Love Mom and Dad.

Dear Tracy, Your father and I wish you the best of everything. We know that you will succeed in all your endeavors. Love Mom and Dad.

My precious Little One. Love Mom.

Dear Fred: We wish you the best the world can offer and then some. We love you. Mom and Dad.

May you always be this happy! Love Mom and Dad.



Congratulations and Best wishes Billy, we are very proud of you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Laurie.

Sandi, May you always be this young at heart. Love, Mom and Dad.

Dear Tracie, So this is it! Finally your off to college and all I can think of is your first game, birthday party, skinned knees, the surprise birthday party you and your brother gave me, coaching your softball team, your first prom, and now graduation. So fast I'm not ready to let go. I'll miss the young girl, but I love the young woman you've become. I'm so proud of you, my very special daughter. All my love, Mom.

Dear Amy, Just want to say Congratulations and Best of Luck. Love Mom and Dad.

You'll always be a tough guy. Love Mom and Dad.

Don, No one could love you as much as we do, but we're glad you're one instead of two. Good luck in your future, Ma and Dad.

Dear Matthew, Keep on reaching. Keep on smiling. Keep on being you. With pride and love, Mom and Dad.

Congratulations Peter! We love you much! Love Mom and Dad.

THANKS

Mr. Whiting — The class of 1990's beloved advisor. He was on top of it all to make our four years at M.H.S. run smoothly.

Here they are — Methuen High School's own Ma and Dad. Mr. Sestini and Shirley Hovenasian touched our hearts in their combined efforts to make our play the best it could be. Thanks again.

Mrs. Lyons and Mr. Moore worked hard to make the yearbook a success. She was busy with the business co-op program, and he was managing the science department, but they gave the yearbook staff the motivation they needed.

AND FAREWELL

This year Mr. Melnicki one of our most caring English teachers decided to retire. He was a hard working and dedicated teacher. He will definitely be missed by all of us at Methuen High.
